

BECAUSE BUDDHA PREDICTED JESUS' COMING

"If I was given the same amount of merit for 100,000 epochs and live 10 more lifetimes, I would not be saved from sin's results even once."

"The Old Brahman priest asked further, 'So what should we all do?' The Buddha answered, 'Keep on making merit and look for another Holy One who will come and help the world and all of you in the future.'

Then the old Brahman priest asked, 'What will the characteristics of the Holy One be like?'

The Buddha answered him, 'The Holy One who will keep the world in the future will be like this: in the palm of His hands and in the flat of His feet will be the design of a disk, in His side will be a stab wound; and His forehead will have many marks like scars.'"

Near the time of Buddha's death in 483 B.C., The Enlightened One told his followers, "Regardless of how many laws you have kept, or even if you pray five times a day, you cannot be free from your sins. Even though you burn yourself, even though I become a hermit or am reborn another ten times, I shall also not be saved"

(Manuscript, Praising Temple, Chiangmai, Thailand).

Buddha stated that he was not a god, but just a man, a truth seeker. At his death, he taught there would be a future Messiah, "Lord of Mercies," who would free men from their sins.

Buddha stated, "He is the Lord of Mercies. His name shall be called King of Kings, the Lord of Lords. He is all knowing, all wise. He knows all that is in the human heart. He is Lord of all the angels and of all humans. No one is greater than He" (Sutrapridot 3:107).

He further stated concerning the Lord of Mercies that "...His side has a wound where he was pierced, and his forehead has many scars. He will carry you to heaven where you will find the triune God. Thus give up following the old ways. A spirit from heaven will come and dwell in your heart"

(Manuscript, Praising Temple, Chiangmai, Thailand). (2)
