

Church member duties:

Those who are church members will be asked to help in church worship and outside of the church.

Inside of the Church:

Christian men be placed on a list and be rotated equally through the worship duties.

We will do the following within the church:

- A. Prayer
- B. Lord's Supper (helping lead prayers/pass the plates)
- C. Lord's Supper (talk)
- D. Church prayers
- E. Song leading
- F. Teachers

G. Sermon

H. Announcements

I. Expected of all - Greet/talk to visitors (inviting them to Bible study or to show hospitality)

Outside of the Church:

Christian men be given opportunities for growth and be encouraged to develop into these things as they progress as servants/workers and mature as leaders:

A. Teaching classes (Christians and non-Christians)

B. Organizing evangelism events

C. Setting up evangelism event

D. Doing outreach events

E. Practicing hospitality

F. Contacting via text, card, the sick, discouraged, new converts, visitors, and new members to encourage them.

G. Hosting group meetings in one's home.

H. Heading up an evangelism group.

I. Having special new convert classes at home.

J. Mentoring someone as a leader in teaching, preaching, song leading, evangelism, encouraging others, etc.

K. Visiting new members, new converts, the elderly, those in hospitals, etc.

Note: This does not encompass everything. But you get the point.

The church members are encouraged to create their own evangelism events, groups, and activities, (besides doing what we have set up). As well as other Christian-related events. Bible-based works are encouraged. Creativity, industry, and initiative in the Lord's people is encouraged.

Ways women can serve the kingdom:

Many of the things you read above women can do. But I want to highlight more examples. Ladies, your role is important and valued too.

- A. One-on-one classes or large group classes for women teaching women
- B. Teaching young children within church and classes outside of the church
- C. Making/getting communion bread and getting Lord's Supper supplies
- D. Practicing hospitality/preparing meals/opening up their homes
- E. Writing cards to visitors, the discouraged, the elderly, new members, etc.
- F. Visiting the elderly, those in hospital, new members to welcome them to church/get to know them, etc.
- E. Helping with Bible studies with non-Christians
- F. Helping coordinate or set up evangelism events

G. Opening homes for Bible study for non-Christians, new converts, and fellow saints

H. Sharing church news each week through email/text/social media apps.

J. Hosting singings and potlucks

K. Mentoring the young people into strong Christians. For example: having kids over to make cards or bake cookies for the new members, new converts, those in hospital, the elderly, etc. to bring over. For example: having kids sing to the elderly at their homes. Having the kids over to write cards to the visitors. etc.
