

Praying and seeking ideas from evangelist Brent Hunter:

Make a list of the people you know who you would consider good prospects. Include in the list what you know about the religion held by each one (if any).

Narrow the list to three and finally one or two.

Then make a list of things that would hinder you from contacting that person. Begin praying for that person and let God open up doors of opportunity for you. He will help you to overcome obstacles. Remember to concentrate on a few at a time.

One of the devil's chief weapons is to get us so busy we can't show anyone individual attention.

YOUR PERSONAL PROSPECTS LIST:

- PROSPECT NAME
- (HOW YOU KNOW THEM: FRIEND, COWORKER, NEIGHBOR, RELATIVE, ETC.)
- IF POSSIBLE, MENTION THEIR RELIGIOUS FAITH
- MENTION ANY OBSTACLES THAT MAY ARISE THAT YOU CAN MEET WHEN GIVING AN INVITE OR AFTERWARDS, WHEN DOING BIBLE STUDIES WITH THEM.

ALWAYS KEEP A PROSPECT LIST CURRENT!

HAVE A WEEKLY, MONTHLY, AND YEARLY GOAL.

- Keep a list of names and add to it. Check off as you teach, or find that they are not the ones who are open right now. Keep praying and try again later.
- THINK--WHO DO YOU KNOW THAT YOU WOULD REALLY LIKE TO SEE IN HEAVEN, that if they died right now, as far as you know, do not know the Lord?
- NOW NARROW THE LIST DOWN TO ONE OR TWO PEOPLE. List their names below and begin praying for them today!
